

Study Questions
Chapter 13
Cognitive Prophetic Cooperation

1. What can result from that form of fatalism which teaches that every detail of our lives is already mapped out in advance?
2. What can prophetic promises do for us?
3. When God makes a prophetic promise to us, what does he usually expect out of us?
4. How did Mary cooperate with the promise of God?
5. What is the terminology used in this chapter to describe human-based attempts to accomplish God's promise?
6. How did Abraham and Sarah cooperate with the promise of God?
7. When evil seems to be overpowering, what must we remember?
8. When the Jews learned of Haman's plan to exterminate them they fasted and cried out to God, but what else did they do?
9. Through God's power and through the cognitive cooperation of Mordecai and Esther, what happened to the evil politician Haman?
10. What other political action was taken by Mordecai?
11. What did this new legislation allow the Jews to do and to what laws can this be compared today?
12. We must _____ and _____ cooperate with the prophetic promises of God.
13. Write out the Paradigm Builder.